Friday 29th November 2019

This week Otters Class went to explore the shops in Budleigh Salterton as part of their literacy work based on the book 'The High Street' by Alice Melvin.

Academy Conversion

The outstanding legal arrangements have been finalised and we are pleased to announce we are converting to academy status on the 1st December.

Christmas Performance

This year, to raise money which will primarily go towards the Year 6 residential trip we are selling tickets for the Christmas Performance.

They will go on sale from Monday and will be £2 each. There will be a limit of 2 tickets per family initially and will then go on general sale on Monday 9th.

Budleigh Carol Singing

Please could every child bring in a glass jar to school which they will decorate ready for the Budleigh Salterton procession for late night shopping.

Guitar and Ukulele lessons

We are pleased to be able to offer Ukulele lessons starting from after Christmas. These will take place in school on a Monday morning and will be run by Kara who currently teaches guitar over at Drake's.

If you would like your child to have lessons it's £10 for a 30 minute slot. Please contact Kara direct by email on karajade273@gmail.com

Coffee Morning

There will be a Coffee Morning at Budleigh Riding School on Friday 6th December 10.00-12.00. Please go along if you can make it!

Chocolate Bingo - This Friday

Carols at The Kings!

Please join us for a fun evening singing along to popular carols in the Kings Arms at 7.30pm on Friday December 20th. Accompanied by a live band (courtesy of and starring Faith and Mark Reynolds - Rosie's parents), this popular village tradition raises funds for OCESA through a raffle held on the night.

After School Sports Club

The after school multi sports club run by Premier Sports will be continuing after Christmas. Please keep checking the Premier Sports website to sign up.

Volunteers

We are always looking for volunteers in school to help out with reading etc, if you think that you might be able to help out on a regular basis then please see your child's class teacher.
